

Before Treatment Begins

☼ Steps in Formulating a Treatment Plan

Orthodontic Examination and Records	1
Pre-medication	1
Allergies	1
General Medical Condition	1
Dental Checkups and Care	1
Planning and Consultation	2
Changes in Original Treatment Plan	2
Teeth, Mouth and Jaw Problems	2
Treatment Options	2

☼ What Can You Expect During Orthodontic Treatment?

Level of Discomfort	3
Additional Orthodontic Appliances	3
Additional Records and X-rays	3
Removal of Teeth	3
Timing of Treatment	4
Estimated Length of Treatment	4
Retainers	4
Facial Growth Pattern	5
Adverse Growth Pattern (Adverse Jaw Growth)	5

Introduction

☼ What Will Be Expected of You During Orthodontic Treatment?

6-12

Your Cooperation is Essential	6
Habits	6
Cavities and Decalcification	7
Swollen Gums and Periodontal Problems	7
Tooth Reshaping and Equilibration	7
Root Resorption	8
Ceramic Braces	8
Removable Clear Appliances (Aligners)	8
Temporary Anchorage Devices (TADs)	8
Loss of Tooth Vitality	9
Impacted Teeth	9
Ankylosed Teeth	9
Injuries from Appliances	9-10
Injuries During Treatment Procedures	10
Jaw Joint Pain and/or Clicking	10-11
Tooth Attrition and Enamel Loss	11
Oral Surgery and Orthognathic Surgery	11
Image Simulation	12
Relapse Tendencies	12
Discontinuation of Treatment	12
Additional Risk and Benefits	12

☼ Informed Consent and Treatment Confirmation

Doctor's Consent and Confirmation Form	13
Patient's Consent and Confirmation Form	Inside Back Cover