

Dear Dr. Karami,

Thank you again for your help during our little girl's emergency. Your kindness and professionalism made a very scary situation bearable. We cannot express enough our gratitude and appreciation for what you did for our family. We will never forget your patience with an uncooperative two-year old and her frightened parents. Again - thank you.

Sincerely,
The Jerome Hale Family