Before Treatment Begins

Steps in Formulating a Treatment Plan
- Orthodontic Examination and Records
- Pre-medication
- Allergies
- General Medical Condition
- Dental Checkups and Care
- Planning and Consultation
- Changes in Original Treatment Plan
- Teeth, Mouth and Jaw Problems
- Treatment Options

What Will Be Expected of You During Orthodontic Treatment?
- Your Cooperation Is Essential
- Habits
- Cavities and Decalcification
- Swollen Gums and Periodontal Problems
- Tooth Reshaping and Equilibration
- Root Resorption
- Ceramic Braces
- Removable Clear Appliances (Aligners)
- Temporary Anchorage Devices (TADs)
- Loss of Tooth Vitality
- Impacted Teeth
- Ankylosed Teeth
- Injuries from Appliances
- Injuries During Treatment Procedures
- Jaw Joint Pain and/or Clicking
- Tooth Attrition and Enamel Loss
- Oral Surgery and Orthognathic Surgery
- Image Simulation
- Relapse Tendencies
- Discontinuation of Treatment
- Additional Risk and Benefits

Informed Consent and Treatment Confirmation
- Doctor’s Consent and Confirmation Form
- Patient’s Consent and Confirmation Form

Page dimensions: 612.0x792.0