

Products listed below have been awarded the VOHC Seal of Acceptance in the category specified:

Helps control plaque and tartar:

- Hill's Canine T/D Original and Small Bites
- Hill's Feline T/D
- Science Diet Oral Care Diet for Dogs and Cats
- Purina Veterinary Diets DH Dental Health brand Feline Formula
- Vetradent Dog Chews
- Canine Greenies- all sizes
- Canine Greenies Lite- all sizes
- Canine Greenies Senior- all sizes
- Greenies Veterinary Formula Canine Dental Chews

Helps control tartar:

- Friskies Cheweez Beefhide treats
- Iams Chunk Dental Defense Diet for Dogs
- Eukanuba Adult Maintenance Diet for Dogs
- Purina Veterinary Diets DH Dental Health brand Canine Formula and Small Bites Canine Formula
- Purina Veterinary Diets Dental Chews brand canine treats
- Tartar Shield Soft Rawhide Chews for Dogs
- Vetradent Dog Chews
- Greenies Feline Dental Treats

Helps control plaque:

- Virbac CET Veggiedent chews for Dogs- all sizes
- Canine Greenies Hip and Joint Care Chews
- Milk-Bone brushing chews for Dogs (available in March 2014)

Remember that there is no perfect chew toy for your pet. Supervision should be provided whenever your pet is given chew toys. A good rule to follow is that dogs should never chew on anything harder than their teeth. Nylon bones, natural bones, pig ears and cow hooves may lead to fractured teeth. Alternatively, Kong toys are firm rubber toys that are compressible and provide good chewing activity for your dog.